SOCIAL STUDIES EDUCATION (K-12)
Five-Year Teacher Education Program
Revised August, 2016 -- For students earning a bachelor’s degree in May, 2018 or later

Students who complete this program successfully will receive an Ed.M. in Social Studies Education from the GSE as well as a recommendation to the New Jersey Department of Education for Teacher of Social Studies (K-12) Certificate of Eligibility with Advanced Standing (CEAS).

I. PROGRAM DESCRIPTION: The five-year teacher education program in social studies education (K-12) leads to a bachelor’s degree, a master’s degree, and initial teacher certification. Rutgers undergraduates do preliminary coursework and field placements as assigned during the sophomore and junior years, are admitted to the program during the spring semester of the junior year, and enter the professional education sequence in the summer between junior and senior years. Students then qualify to have their bachelor’s degree awarded by the undergraduate liberal arts college.

Students continue with the professional sequence the summer after graduation. They return in the fall to complete a student-teaching internship with related coursework and continue with full-time graduate study, including a field-based research project, in the spring. The Ed.M. degree is conferred upon the completion of all five-year program requirements.

After the master’s degree is awarded, the GSE will make a recommendation to the New Jersey State Department of Education on behalf of the student to receive a CEAS as a teacher.

II. MAJOR: Every candidate for certification in social studies education must complete a full major in one of the following: history, political science, economics, sociology, geography, anthropology, American studies, or area/gender/ethnic studies such as Africana studies, women’s studies, Latino and Caribbean studies, etc. Students must include in their studies at least 30 credits of coursework in the five core content areas: American history/New Jersey history, world history, civics/government, economics, and geography; students must complete at least 15 credits in history, and at least one course in each of American history/New Jersey history, world history, civics/government, and geography. (Courses in the major may be used to fulfill these social studies distribution requirements: courses can be used to fulfill both the 15-credit history requirement and the core content area distribution requirement.) Although it is not required, we strongly encourage all students to take an introductory level economics course as well.

III. APPLICATION REQUIREMENTS: To be considered for admission to the program, applicants must provide the following before the February 1st deadline:

   2. Three letters of recommendation
