In this course, you will...

- Visit, observe and reflect upon Mexican educational settings and educational practices;
- Engage in professional collaborations with Mexican educators and students;
  - Facilitate English Conversation Groups in Mexico;
- Observe the multiple cultures of Mexico through participation in schools, community activities, and city life in Merida;
- Consider the impact of pre-Colombian, colonial and contemporary events on Mexican society and education; and
- Reflect on how your experiences in Mexico may influence your community engagement and teaching practice.

The course will run in January 2018 in Mérida, Yucatán.
Students can register for Community-Based Language Learning Leadership 05:300:407 for 1-3 credits.

For more information, contact Dr. Mary Curran at mary.curran@gse.rutgers.edu or Kelly Clarida at kelly.clarida@gse.rutgers.edu.
Information Session on Thursday, September 7, 2017 from 4:30 - 5:30 in GSE Building, Room 124