

GRADUATE CERTIFICATE IN GIFTED EDUCATION

Non-degree GSE certificate

Revised March, 2024 -- For students beginning summer 2024 or later

- I. PROGRAM DESCRIPTION: This twelve-credit non-degree online graduate certificate program is available to students enrolled in master's and doctoral programs in many fields at Rutgers and is open to all with a bachelor's degree. The certificate program is designed to help New Jersey educators, districts, and parents meet the challenges of educating the gifted. This special program draws on input from district superintendents, teachers, parents, the Educational Information and Resource Center and the statewide advocates for gifted children, including the New Jersey Association for Gifted Children. The curriculum, develop in alignment with state and national standards, addresses the social and emotional development of the gifted child, curriculum design and implementation, pedagogy, instructional strategies, and the development and administration of a gifted education program.

This program does not include coursework leading to a New Jersey school personnel license.

Note: The courses required for this program are not offered in the same semester. This program cannot be completed in one semester.

- II. APPLICATION DEADLINES: No applications can be admitted less than two weeks before the beginning of the semester in which the program will be started. Applications must be submitted and completed at least two weeks before the beginning of the semester.
- III. APPLICATION REQUIREMENTS: To be considered for admission to the program, applicants must provide the following:
