Revised Summer, 2024 -- For students earning a bachelor's degree in May, 2026 or later

*Students who complete this program successfully will receive an Ed.M. in Elementary Education from the GSE as well as a nomination to the New Jersey Department of Education for two teaching certificates: a Certificate of Eligibility with Advanced Standing (CEAS) in Elementary School Teacher (K-6) and Middle School with Subject Matter Specialization in: English/Language Arts, Mathematics, Science, Social Studies, or World Language (5-8).

I. PROGRAM DESCRIPTION: The Ed.M. in Elementary Education with Initial Certification in Elementary K-6 and Middle School 5-8 Teaching (4+1) is designed for Rutgers undergraduate students who wish to teach elementary in grades K-6 and/or middle school-age children. This program provides undergraduates with an opportunity to earn their bachelor's degree, a master's degree, and an initial teacher certification with just one additional year of study. Rutgers undergraduates do preliminary coursework as advised during the first three undergraduate years, including undergraduate prerequisite coursework. Additionally, they select a middle school content teaching area based on their interest and their undergraduate coursework. These content areas include: English, Mathematics, Science, Social Studies, World Language (proficiency exams required), STEM, or Humanities. Rutgers students are admitted to the program during the spring semester of junior year and enter the professional education sequence during senior year. After students are awarded a bachelor's by the undergraduate college, they continue with the professional sequence for a fifth year of full-time graduate study at the GSE.

Upon completion of all five-year program requirements, students earn an Ed.M. in Elementary Education and the GSE will make a nomination to the New Jersey Department of Education on behalf of the student to receive a Certificate of Eligibility with Advanced Standing (CEAS) in Teacher of Elementary Grades (K-6) and Middle School with Subject Matter Specialization in: English/Language Arts, Mathematics, Science, Social Studies, or World Language (5-8).

The Ed.M. in Elementary Education with Initial Certification in Elementary K-6 and Middle School 5-8 Teaching (4+1) offers a range of foundational and specialized topics in elementary and middle school education using a cohort model. These topics include principles of classroom learning, evaluation and assessment, classroom organization, literacy development, community relations, and educational psychology.

In alignment with the GSE's mission, all teacher preparation programs and courses are designed to prepare teacher candidates to be culturally responsive practitioners and effectively teach diverse learners by fostering a deep understanding of students from historically underserved linguistic, economic, and cultural backgrounds and communities. Pedagogy courses aimed at meeting the specific learning needs of elementary and middle school students, along with carefully crafted internships under the guidance of experienced teachers and expert faculty providing feedback, ensure that candidates are well-prepared as teachers to advance equity and excellence in their content area.

II. MAJOR: All undergraduate majors are acceptable for this program. However, we recommend a liberal arts area. Please check with the GSE Advisor about your choice of major as early as possible in your undergraduate career. A major in one of the subject areas taught in the middle school grades may make the program requirements easier to complete (English, mathematics, sciences, social studies, or a World Language).

Subject Specialization: At least 15 credits of college-level work must be completed in the subject field in your area of specialization (English, mathematics, science, social studies, or world language.) Any subject fitting into one of the five areas listed above is appropriate. Specialization in more than one field is acceptable, but at least 15 credits must be earned in each field.

III. APPLICATION REQUIREMENTS: To be considered for admission to the program, applicants must provide the following before the application deadline:

1. Personal statement
2. One letter of recommendation
3. Official undergraduate transcripts - the New Jersey Department of Education requires a minimum GPA of 2.75 to be admitted to a teacher education program.

(NOTE: Praxis Core, SAT, GRE, ACT or other basic skills exams are no longer required as of January 1, 2025. Admission to the GSE Teacher Education Programs is competitive. Meeting the minimum requirements above does not guarantee admission.)
