

ED.M. IN EDUCATIONAL ADMINISTRATION AND SUPERVISION (OPTION C)

Non-certification option

Revised January 2025 - for students admitted for summer 2025 or later

- I. PROGRAM DESCRIPTION: Master's degree (Ed.M.) programs are offered for aspiring school principals, PK-12 supervisors, and leaders in higher education. Students have a choice of three programs: Option A (33 credits) meets the requirements for New Jersey principal, supervisor, and superintendent certification. Option B (30 credits) prepares students for principal and superintendent certification. Option C (30 credits) prepares students who seek an Ed.M. in Educational Administration and Supervision without certification(s). Non-degree programs leading to supervisor (12 credits) and superintendent (3 credit) endorsement are also available.

Option C is designed for students who wish to prepare for positions of leadership in public and private PK-12 and higher education institutions that do not require administrator certification. The program builds on a foundation of course work in educational administration and leadership and allows the opportunity to choose electives in specific areas of expertise.

This Control Sheet pertains only to Option C.
