ALMA MATER

On the Banks of the Old Raritan

From far and near we came to Rutgers,
And resolved to learn all that we can;
And so we settled down,
In that noisy college town,
On the banks of the old Raritan.

REFRAIN:

On the banks of the old Raritan (my friends)
Where old Rutgers evermore shall stand,
For has she not stood
Since the time of the flood,
On the banks of the old Raritan.

Then sing aloud to Alma Mater
And keep the scarlet in the van'
For with her motto high
Rutgers' name shall never die
On the banks of the old Raritan.

Student Awards

Nancy Higginson Dorr Award

PRESENTED BY

Dr. Nora Hyland

Associate Dean of Academic Affairs and Faculty Director of Teacher Education
Learning and Teaching

The Nancy Higginson Dorr Award was established by her son to honor graduates who show promise of being exceptional teachers. Nancy Higginson Dorr attended the Dearborn Seminary in Chicago in the 1860's and later became a remarkable teacher who, according to one of her children, "somehow kept alive the inborn curiosity and spirit of inquiry and exploration with which children are born." To the recipients of this award go "deepest wishes that you might get from it the same fullness of life which it helped bring to her."

New Jersey Distinguished Clinical Intern Award 2025 Nominees

Dr. Nora Hyland

Associate Dean of Academic Affairs and Faculty Director of Teacher Education
Learning and Teaching

The New Jersey Distinguished Clinical Intern Award is a prestigious honor presented jointly by the New Jersey Department of Education and the New Jersey Association of Colleges for Teacher Preparation. This annual award publicly recognizes the top 15 graduates of New Jersey's teacher preparation programs.

The nominees for this award have all demonstrated outstanding achievement during their student teaching placement. An independent panel of educators evaluates the credentials of each nominee and selects 15 award recipients in June.

The following students have been selected to represent the Graduate School of Education in the statewide competition:

- Sonia Algoo
- Gabrielle Lowe
- Dylan Thibault

Robert James Portella, Ed.D.

R.J. Portella, Ed D. completed his undergraduate studies at NYU and earned his Masters in Adult and Continuing Education at Rutgers. As an educational coach and teacher for over 30 years, his mission is to help students of all ages identify goals, connect them to resources, and reach their unique potentials.

His dissertation amplifies the voices of single student-mothers in higher education, illuminating their fierce determination amid institutional barriers. Outside of the classroom, you will find him hosting fundraisers in the greater Philadelphia area.

DISSERTATION CHAIR: DR. BENJAMIN JUSTICE

The Arleen H. Urban Excellence in Dissertation Award was established in 2017 to honor the life and work of Dr. Arleen Urban. Dr. Urban graduated from the Rutgers Graduate School of Education in 1986 with an Ed.D. She treasured the time she spent at the GSE and was active in GSEAA activities throughout her professional career.

Dr. Urban completed a distinguished 41-year career as instructor and supervisor at the Somerset County Technical Institute. In addition to receiving many formal honors, including the GSEAA Distinguished Service Award and the Rutgers Alumni Meritorious Service Award, Dr. Urban was recognized as an outstanding teacher, known for her deep personal dedication to education and her kind and generous nature.

Distinguished Leader in Education Award

PRESENTED BY

Dr. Christopher M. Span

Dean and Distinguished Professor

Dr. Christopher Catching

Vice Chancellor for Student Affairs

North Carolina Agricultural and Technical
State University

Dr. Christopher Catching has been a leader in higher education for over 25 years. A native of Newark, NJ, his commitment to educational equity is deeply rooted in New Jersey's public education system. A first-generation college student, he attended Newark Public Schools and Essex County Vocational and Technical High Schools and earned his Bachelor of Arts in History from Montclair State University with support from the Educational Opportunity Fund (EOF) Program. He has been honored by Newark Public Schools, the NJ Council of County Vocational and Technical Schools, and received the Governor Thomas E. Kean Distinguished Alumni Award from the EOF Professional Association.

In February 2025, Dr. Catching became Vice Chancellor for Student Affairs at North Carolina A&T State University, the nation's largest HBCU and a leader in STEM and social mobility. He previously served at Stockton University, where the institution was nationally recognized for advancing equity and first-generation student success.

Throughout his career, he has worked to expand equity in higher education, serving students across 11 institutions in New Jersey, New York, Connecticut, and now North Carolina. Dr. Catching holds a doctorate from Rutgers GSE, a master's from New York University, and completed executive leadership programs at Harvard Institute for Education Management and other prestigious institutions.
