

Asset-Based Leadership: Recruiting, Retaining, and Elevating Teachers of Color

Join us for a two-part virtual panel discussion where Teacher Leaders of Color from Neptune Township School District, New Brunswick Public Schools, and Rahway Public Schools share their experiences in their participation in the multi-year NJDOE grant project, Diversifying the Teaching Profession with Rutgers Graduate School of Education. Part one, held on January 13th, will focus on developing protocols to hire and retain teachers of color; and part two, held on January 27th, will focus on strategies for mentoring teachers of color. This event is free and open to the public, you can attend either or both sessions.

Tuesday, January 13, 2026 | 4:30 p.m.–5:30 p.m.

Tuesday, January 27, 2026 | 4:30 p.m.–5:30 p.m.

Register for each session to attend

GSE.RUTGERS.EDU

Scan to Register for
Tuesday, January 13, 2026

Scan to Register for
Tuesday, January 27, 2026

RUTGERS–NEW BRUNSWICK
Graduate School of Education

Advancing Excellence and Equity in Education

©Rutgers, The State University of New Jersey.